

THE CUBA CARAVAN IS COMING TO TOWN

Once again IFCO/Pastors for Peace will be in Durham to enlist support for efforts to end the Blockade of Cuba. This is especially important as the Trump Administration intensifies sanctions under the Helms-Burton Act. These attacks against the well being of the Cuban people are taking place in conjunction with illegal US support for toppling the elected government of Venezuela.

Thursday, June 13, 2019
6:30 PM
The Carrack
947 East Main Street
Durham, N.C. 27701
Info: 919 749-1691

Cheryl LaBash
Her first trip to Cuba was 1985 as a member of the executive board of her AFSCME Local in the city of Detroit. She is currently one of five co-chairs of the National Network on Cuba, working in Michigan with Doctors4 Detroit supporting the ELAM scholarship program, Detroit area students and graduates

Information on the Latin American School of Medicine (ELAM) and opportunities for students of color to attend medical school cost free in Cuba.

Ajamu Amiri Dillahunt-Holloway
IFCO board member. He is a member of both BYP 100 and Black Workers for Justice. He has traveled to Cuba, South Africa and Palestine as an internationalist.

